Interfaith Hospitality Network Comes to Trinity September 4-11

Trinity has been a Host Congregation for Interfaith Hospitality Network (IHN) for the past 25 years, since the network was established in Grand Rapids in 1997. This amazing ministry involves churches in the Grand Rapids area that house homeless families on a rotating basis in church buildings four times per year for a week at a time. A small army of welcoming volunteers are needed at each church during host weeks to prepare evening meals, stay overnight, provide activities and/or help with set-up or take-down.

Look for a link in Trinity's upcoming Friday eBlasts to volunteer to make Trinity a welcoming home during the week of IHN. Please contact Tess Lundgren with questions at tess.lundgren@tlcgr.org or 616.889.9503.

Save the Date for the Annual Parish Picnic Potluck: September 11 at Noon on the West Lawn

Join us for our annual parish picnic potluck on September 11 following our 10:45 a.m. outdoor service. Trinity will provide our traditional entrée of pulled pork and your choice of barbeque sauce. # A Message from Pastor Bob Linstrom

An Orange Banner for a Vigil of 225 Days, and More...

We speak to you all today on behalf of the Indigenous people throughout North America. We come with sad hearts at the news of 215+ children of the Kamloops Residential School whose remains were recently found in a mass grave and of the children of the Rosebud Sioux whose bodies were returned to their homeland this past week. They are being remembered by many by the color orange.

The color orange is symbolic and came from the inspiration of a survivor of that era, Phyllis Webstad, who stated that when she was a 6-year-old girl arriving at a residential boarding school, she was stripped of her clothes which included a new orange t-shirt her grandmother had gifted her and was never given back. The orange shirt/color now symbolizes how the church and the schools they administered took away the Indigenous identity of the children in their care.

In honor and memory of the children of the First Nations people and of our Native children who never made it home, and for those still living the nightmare imposed on them as children of Canada and the United States, we humbly ask our brothers and sisters of the church to hang an orange banner in the sanctuaries of your churches for 225 days. In remembrance and lament of each child that was thrown into those graves, and those yet to be discovered, we honor each of their lives.

Beloved Community,

In the fall of 2021, we introduced a vigil of 225 days at Trinity in remembrance of the nearly 225 indigenous children whose bodies had been discovered in a mass grave at the Kamloops residential school in British Columbia. The excerpt above was from the American Indian Alaska Native Lutheran Association in mid-2021, inviting others in the Lutheran community to join them in that vigil. In our congregation, that vigil of remembrance was marked by orange banners lovingly crafted by Trinity member Nancy Moga, banners which still hang in the narthex and in Centennial Hall. The orange banners, each accented by the image of a single eagle feather, were hung on November 18, 2021, and were prominently featured at the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service which was hosted a couple of days later by the people of Trinity. We told the story of the orange banners and the grim discoveries they commemorated, and many paused in solemn remembrance. Our Thanksgiving observance last fall was accompanied by an element of repentant prayer as we remembered the children who had died.

On July 1, the 225-day vigil officially concluded at Trinity. It is likely that many of us had not reflected on the significance of the orange banners for months as July 1 came and went. But I have determined that it would be of value to continue the vigil. In May of 2022, the United States Interior Department released a long-awaited report indicating that more than 500 children had been buried throughout North America in residential school mass graves. And the report anticipates that additional bodies will be found.

The Interior Department report cited that at least 500 Native American, Alaska Native, and Native Hawaiian children died while attending Indian boarding schools run or supported by the U.S. government. The report identified more than 400 schools and more than 50 gravesites and said more gravesites would likely be found. The report was also the first time in U.S. history that the government has attempted to comprehensively research and acknowledge the magnitude of the horrors it inflicted on Native American children for decades.

I would propose that we need to make this remembrance a vigil of 500 days, or more . . .

I invite you to join me in continuing a solemn remembrance with our sisters and brothers in the Native American community. Perhaps you will join me in noticing again the banners which grace our places of worship and in reflecting on their significance. May we have humble, prayerful, and repentant hearts as we pass by those banners in the months ahead.

It remains a privilege to be a pastor among the people of Trinity.

Grace and peace, Pastor Bob Linstrom

A memorial outside the former Kamloops Indian Residential School in British Columbia on July 15, 2021. A search of the property using ground-penetrating radar found the remains of 215 children buried near the former school.

A Message from Council President Karen Unruh

Let's kick off this column with a little trivia!

Q: How many baptized members does Trinity have?

A: 1674

This number represents 660 households and includes the 27 new members who joined our church family in late June. By the time you read this column the number will have grown, as more members are set to be welcomed in worship in late July and August. Every class of new members is welcomed by the Congregation Council and Trinity staff at a special New Member VIP Night. Perhaps you remember this from when you were a new member, or have participated as a Council member or new member mentor. It's an evening of dinner, fellowship, and new member and staff introductions. We wrap up with a game of Trinity Trivia, working in teams to tackle categories like Congregational Life, Education, Being Lutheran, Organization & Structure, and Community & Global Outreach.

I've always thought of the trivia game as a fun way for new members to meet current members and coincidentally learn a bit more about Trinity, the ELCA, and our connections to our local and global communities. Sitting in worship on New Member Sunday in June, however, I realized that our little game of trivia has a more important purpose than just fun and fellowship; it is equipping members to fulfill our baptismal calling. The litany for welcoming new members begins:

In baptism, we are welcomed into the body of Christ and sent to share in God's mission in the world. We are called to live among God's faithful people, to hear the word of God and share in the Lord's Supper, to proclaim the good news of God in the Christ through word and deed, to serve all people, following the example of Jesus, and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth.

How do we fulfill our calling to live among God's faithful people? The Congregational Life category introduces new members to fellowship and volunteer opportunities within Trinity. How do we hear the word of God? The Education category reviews our many educational opportunities for babies through adults. What is the good news we proclaim? Being Lutheran highlights some of our core beliefs. How do we serve all people and strive for justice and peace in all the earth? Community & Global Outreach has got you covered.

As we continue to resume more and more of our regular pre-pandemic activities and events, now is a good time for a Trinity Trivia refresher course for all members. Beginning this month, each issue of the Messenger will feature a few Trinity Trivia questions. You can even find most of the answers in the various articles you'll read in that very issue's pages! If you'd like to learn more about any of the topics presented, ask a staff member, a Council member, or visit the Trinity (tlcgr.org) or ELCA (elca.org) websites.

The first trivia set is below. Answers are on page 14 of this issue. Have fun!

1. (Congregational Life) What are the two musical groups that participate in traditional worship, and when do they rehearse?
2. (Education) Name two educational opportunities for Trinity's school-age children and/or youth during the school year.
3. (Community & Global Outreach) What are three item collection efforts at Trinity that benefit our local community?

New Members Being Welcomed in the Summer of 2022

After welcoming 45 new members of our congregation in the fall of 2021, Trinity is privileged to welcome another 35 to 40 new partners in ministry in the summer of 2022. We received 27 adults and children as new members on June 26 and additional new members will be received on July 31 and August 21 as we coordinate summertime schedules to intersect with our newest partners in ministry. Please watch for a special guide with photos and biographical sketches of our newest members in an upcoming issue of this newsletter!

A Message from Associate Pastor Dan Schewe

"Give thanks with a grateful heart, give thanks to the holy one!" –from the song by Henry Smith

So often we focus on what we want or do not have. Our consumer-focused culture reinforces this mentality in a myriad of ways that constantly surround us. Everything is something to be consumed with no end in sight.

Today I want to invite you to try something different: giving thanks and participating in an exercise we did at camp and on Mission Trip this summer. You will need something to write with and something to write on – I suggest a pen and some index cards.

Find a quiet space, pause for a moment, and try to clear your mind. Take a few deep breaths. As you center yourself start to think about all the things that you have been given in life. Physical gifts, opportunities, relationships, and anything else that comes to mind that has been given to you in some way.

Try to center in on a few things you are thankful for. Contemplate who helped make those things, opportunities, and experiences a reality in your life. Who helped breathe them into your life?

Focus on one of these things. Take an index card and write a note to that person. Start by saying "thank you for..." and specifically naming the thing you want to thank the person for, keeping it specific and not vague. Try to write a few of these thank you notes.

Next, think about all of the things God has given you. Think about the things you often thank God for. Think about the things you have not thanked God for in a while, and maybe there is something you have never thanked God for. Again, write a specific thank you note for the things that come to mind.

I encourage you to share these thank you notes as a practice of gratitude. Find a time to extend thanks to the people you thought of and, if it helps, use these notes as a starting place to let them know how appreciative of them you are. Send your note as a text, or email, or let it be a simple voicemail. You can use your notes to God as a start of a prayer of thankfulness.

Try to do this exercise a few times this month and see how it affects your outlook on life.

Shalom,
Pastor Dan Schewe

Behind the Scenes at Trinity

Flexible, Fierce, & Friendly: Grace Gohl

This month we're featuring a staff member whose work is literally all done 'behind the scenes.' Grace Gohl began working at Trinity as our part-time sexton in April 2021. She connected to our congregation through Rick Radke and is a valued and energetic addition to our staff.

As our youngest sexton, Grace is rising to the task. She is basically responsible for our facilities, which can include communication with service vendors, event set-up and take-down, worship space maintenance, and – in collaboration with the Property Committee – the general oversight of our physical space. She has learned a great deal about flat roofs, heating and cooling systems, water function management, laying carpet tiles, and how to creatively make screens for windows!

Some of Grace's favorite aspects of her job at Trinity are learning new things, the differing work days, and being allowed flexibility in when she gets her work done – if you're on-site around 10 p.m., you'll find Grace here moving chairs, hanging banners, or filling candles. Grace also wants to give a shout-out to office coordinator Kris Baker, who is a welcoming presence for electricians, plumbers, and other service people during the day.

Grace moving Trinity chairs

The most challenging thing about working 10 to 15 hours per week for a large community with a multifaceted, multi-aged building is being aware of what all the needs are and how to communicate best with everyone. Grace is very appreciative of Dave Mester for teaching her so much along the way. When asked "What can our congregation do best to support you?" Grace suggested being willing and able to help with setting up and taking down tables and chairs for events.

As a 21-year-old junior at Davenport University and Kuyper College, Grace is studying social work. She is drawn to social work because she sees a great deal of inequality in society and has also seen many system failures. She is seeking a broader look at complicated issues. Ultimately, she would like to be able to provide needed resources to help people live better.

As a student athlete, Grace plays on the Davenport rugby team and helped secure the women's 7s National Championship this year! If you don't know much about rugby, it takes strength, grit, and speed. When not in class, working at Trinity, or playing/training for rugby, Grace helps her dad at Landscape GR or babysits for nieces and nephews. Grace is also very creative and loves to paint just about anything including portraits, walls, and shoes! She also enjoys thrifting and had fun experiencing the Trinity rummage sale. Someday, when time and finances allow, Grace would like to take part in a mission trip in another country. This young woman is very productive!

Grace with teammates after winning the Rugby Championship

Please introduce yourself whenever you cross paths with our flexible, fierce, and friendly new sexton. You can also connect with Grace at grace.gohl@tlcgr.org to discuss ways in which you might support her or our facilities. You'll love meeting Grace!

Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. –1 Timothy 4:12

Grace's Trinity Fan Club!

Note: The purpose of Behind the Scenes at Trinity is to praise God and to encourage others to utilize their special abilities to serve Him. Although people featured here have been reluctant to be highlighted, they've agreed to be published to encourage others to experience the joys of serving. If you'd like to suggest people to feature in future articles, please contact Communications Coordinator Carrie Lamb.

Stephen Ministry FAQ

What Do Stephen Ministers Do?

Stephen Ministers are caring Christians who listen, understand, accept, and pray for and with care receivers who are working through a difficult time in life. The difficulty may be their own or something a loved one is experiencing. Some examples of difficult situations are death of a loved one, illness or accident, birth of a child, dealing with divorce or separation, relocation, or loss of employment. Confidentiality is always a priority.

Are Stephen Ministers Counselors?

Stephen Ministers are not counselors; they are trained lay caregivers. Their role is to listen and care, not to give advice. Stephen Ministers are also trained to recognize when a care receiver's needs fall outside what they are equipped to provide—at which point they help connect the care receiver with appropriate outside resources.

How Can Someone Receive Care from a Stephen Minister?

Kristin Bradley and Norm Palm are the Stephen Leaders who coordinate referrals. If you or someone you know could benefit from the care of a Stephen Minister, you can talk to one of them, one of our pastors, or any of our other Stephen Leaders. # Opportunities to Support Church & Community

Do Some Gardening at Trinity

Trinity's August gardening workbee will take place on Saturday, August 6 from 8 to 11 a.m. Consider lending us some support as we add plants into beds we have been prepping all summer. Maybe you noticed the bare bark mulch planting beds in the west entrance lawn courtyard and gardens? The lawn was difficult to mow and maintain along the foundation of the education wing so we spread cardboard and topped with bark mulch to smother the grass. It is now ready for planting!

Please join us for what should be a satisfying improvement to this area. Bring a shovel and your work gloves to get a little dirty as we make things beautiful!

Volunteer as a Tutor: Help a Child Learn to Read

Could you possibly carve out a small amount of time in your schedule each week to help a child reach their goals and learn to read?

For 27 years, First United Methodist Church has sponsored the tutoring program at MLK Jr. Leadership Academy. This Grand Rapids Public School is located at 645 Logan SE. 100% of the neighborhood student population is considered at or below poverty level. The tutoring program provides reading tutors for all kindergarten, first, and second grade students. Each tutor typically sees two students weekly for a half hour each, back-to-back, totaling an hour from October through April (understanding that some may miss a few weeks for illness, vacation, etc.). It is also possible to be a substitute tutor to fill in when regular tutors are absent. Please contact Kris Baker in the main office for more information.

Have Some Fun at a Know Mercy Softball Game!

Trinity's coed softball team, "Know Mercy," has been playing on Tuesday evenings all summer. Their last game will be played on Field #2 at Manhattan Park, 331 Cascade Rd SE in East Grand Rapids, on August 2 at 6 p.m.!

The Nativity of Mary by Mark M. Mattison

Have you ever wondered how Jesus' human parents met? How old were they? Some say that Joseph was a widower and Mary was a teenager. Where does that tradition come from? It's not in the Bible, but there is an ancient story – just as old as the Bible – that talks about it.

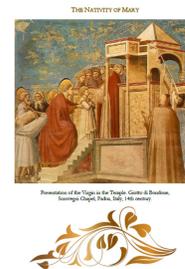

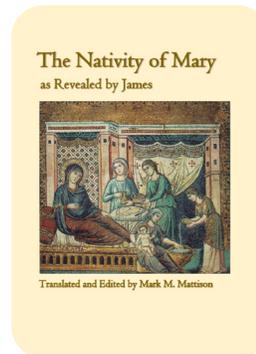

Who was Jesus' grandma? What was she like? Again, the Bible doesn't say, but this ancient story does.

The story is The Nativity of Mary as Revealed by James, first written down early in the second century. Known by several different titles and preserved in well over a hundred ancient manuscripts, it's a highly influential tale about Mary's parents, birth, marriage to Joseph, Temple service, and motherhood. The earliest existing Greek manuscript was discovered in 1952 in Egypt and purchased by Martin Bodmer. Today, it's conserved by the Bodmer Foundation in Cologne, Switzerland, outside Geneva.

With the kind permission of the Bodmer Foundation, I've just published a book with full-color photographs of the Greek manuscript, along with my own colloquial English translation and over eighty full-color photographs of frescos, mosaics, paintings, and sculptures from India, Persia, Africa, and Europe. These works of art range from the fifth century to the seventeenth century, all illustrating scenes from this amazing story.

To the best of my knowledge, there's never been a book quite like this one. More than just a translation of an ancient text, this latest project blends art, literature, history, tradition, and contemporary spirituality in a unique way, forging a beautiful creation that's as new as it is old. I'm very excited to share it with you, my church family.

To learn more about The Nativity of Mary, visit my new website, www.luminescence-llc.net/nativity. The paperback costs $24.99, and the hardcover costs $29.99. Although it's available from Amazon, I'm happy to provide a personalized autographed copy on Sunday, August 25 after worship services. I look forward to seeing you then!

Overlook Gallery: Featuring Artist Mary Reusch

Be sure to stop by Trinity's Overlook Gallery through August to view the works of local artist Mary Reusch. From Mary's blog:

Painting landscapes gives me the opportunity to go out into nature and observe it very closely. Standing in a meadow, or in a forest, or on the shore of a lake gives me a chance to soak up the essence of the land and enjoy its rhythms. Capturing these many scenes is a time-honored vision. As civilization has encroached on the landscape, artists have been working hard to preserve the memory of wild areas. One such group were the Barbizon painters from 19th century France, who first felt the impact of industrialization. Painters like Rousseau and Millet strove to monumentalize everyday life and their surroundings, bringing in new honesty and soul to the world of painting. These ideas were echoed a few years later here in the United States by artists such as George Inness as he endeavored to give his landscapes a sense of the divine. My own connection to the natural world causes me to want to capture what I observe and experience. As our current wilderness continues to disappear right here in West Michigan, and we spread out and build more and more, I find that what we have left is increasingly sacred in my eyes.

Trinity Neighbors

Brenda Fritts's Trinity Neighbors group met in June for dinner at First Wok. Even with church activities returning to near-normal, summer and fall are great times to get your Trinity Neighbors group together for fun and fellowship.
